Mr. Brush is Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He has a broad litigation practice, at both the trial and appellate court levels, that includes the representation of private and public entities as plaintiffs in commercial and construction disputes, and defendants in employment, civil rights, commercial, and construction disputes. Mr. Brush has successfully handled cases involving federal constitutional claims, Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Rehabilitation Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Chapter 21 of the Texas Labor Code, the Texas Whistleblower Act, and other statutory and common law causes of action, including wrongful termination, personal injury, defamation, intentional infliction of emotional distress, breach of contract, construction defect, consumer claims, insurance claims, governance disputes, and disputes involving the Texas Public Information Act.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Brush worked as an associate in the litigation section of Orgain, Bell & Tucker, L.L.P. in Beaumont, Texas from 2004 to 2007. Before law school, Mr. Brush worked as a residential construction superintendent.
